

WELCOME TO UCLUELET

Life on the Edge

On behalf of the District of Ucluelet, welcome to delegates, partners and guests to the 2012 Association of Vancouver Island Coastal Communities Convention. Ucluelet is proud to be the host community and we hope that once your important business decisions have concluded that you take time to enjoy our coastal community and the natural splendour that we live in.

*Regards,
Mayor & Council*

Ucluelet Heritage Tour

Join Lisa Brisco, president of the Ucluelet & Area Historical Society on a guided tour of Ucluelet's historical highlights including the gardens of world renowned hybridizer George Fraser. Enjoy stories on how Ucluelet developed as a community, devastating shipwrecks of our pasts, creation of the lighthouse, and the impacts of World War II.

To join Lisa on this historical moment please remember to fill out the Partner/Guest portion of the Delegate Registration form.

Wild Pacific Trail Guided Walk

Join Jim Martin, locally known as Oyster Jim, as he escorts you on one of two possible guided walks along the rugged shorelines and spectacular viewscapes on the Wild Pacific Trail. Listen to tales of local lore; learn about our flora and fauna. Please wear proper foot wear and clothing for a light hike, don't forget your camera, you may spot a migrating whale.

To join Jim on one of his fabulous walks please remember to fill out the Partner/Guest portion of the Delegate Registration form. For more information on the Wild Pacific Trail visit the website at www.wildpacifictrail.com

Whale Watching with Jamie's Whaling Station
